"She said that her faith helped her see that God loved her, but they were not together the way she wanted to be," Linda writes. "She said Jesus came from nothing and wanted nothing more for her but the truth of who he was. I think for someone just lost, they are pretty much like any other teenager. To go through something like this to get that recognition back is pretty miraculous.".. According to a UCLA spokesperson, "the university will not respond to claims that it has engaged in civil and criminal misconduct in response to our student protesters or others like them, and that it has engaged in misconduct against others not identified.".

[2018]Linda Lander is the mother of four young children, one of whom recently passed away. Her life has been changed forever through the grace of God and through her own efforts. She has always wanted to find out that it was not just a question of being sick. It was a question of being dead.. Linda is very active in her church while she serves through many groups serving the homeless and working families. As she sees it, it has made a huge difference to her life after having had all that she never could have imagined.. Linda's life has never been easy. She lost her husband in 2008, she suffered from diabetes and cancer-related diseases, along with chronic pain from her spinal surgeries. She battled each one of these as she struggled to care for her children on her own.
